ENGRAVED ON MY HEART.

Sion, the jewel of the Alps

Welcome to Sion, the capital of Valais, a town recognisable by far thanks to its two hills topped by the castles of Tourbillon and Valère.

These benevolent sentinels watch over the city its old town and its 35,000 inhabitants.

Here, over 7,000 years of history unfold along the narrow streets and amongst the monuments.

A gentle Mediterranean scent lingers in the air, accompanying visitors as they stroll through the shopping districts and the recently developed urban spaces, designed for leisurely wandering.

Our suggestions for discovery activities for groups !

To make it easier for you to organise activities for your groups, family days out and gatherings, we have put together this catalogue of activities. The following pages give you an overview.

Depending on your requirements, we will tailor these options and suggest others. The Tourist Office can handle all contact with partners and bookings directly, at no extra cost!
